Foreword

Time fashions our lives; it nourishes and strengthens our knowledge; it gives life a deeper meaning. Throughout our years at the High School of Commerce, we have become aware of the important role Father Time plays in our daily routine, in developing our education and future careers, and in making us a part of this modern age.

It is our purpose, therefore, in presenting the 1963 edition of CADUCEUS to highlight TIME, the creator of memories.

Behind Those Lessons of

Mr. Sweeney received his A.B. from American International College and his A.M. from Harvard University, where he also studied an additional year in English. As everyone in Commerce knows, he holds many tennis titles throughout New England, two of which are Western Massachusetts Singles and Doubles Championships. In his spare time he enjoys reading; while in school he uses much of his time helping students realize their potential. Because of his interest in all of the students' activities, he keeps "a finger in every pie!" By his thoughtfulness to everyone, he continually proves his aversion to inconsiderate, unkind people. When asked for a message to Commerce students, he replied, "The Kantian Categorical Imperative!" (It's in most good dictionaries under "categorical!")

Philip A. Sweeney, Principal

School Administration

Superintendent, Dr. T. Joseph McCook
Deputy Superintendent, Dr. M. Marcus Kiley
Assistant Superintendent, Alice B. Beal
Assistant Superintendent, Joseph E. Buckley

Miss Midura attended American International College for her B.S., Springfield College for her M.Ed., and the University of Connecticut for her Ph.D. Away from school, her hobbies include reading and sewing. Because she is constantly occupied with the attendance records and personal problems of the students, it is not surprising that lazy people are her most common annoyance. Always concerned with the conduct of Commerce people, she has as her favorite expression, "There is a time and place for everything." Miss Midura believes that in order to succeed in life, one must have faith, hope, and charity.

Dr. Gladys A. Midura, Assistant Principal

MRS. MARION B. ABBOTT, a graduate Plymouth Teachers College (B.E.) and American University, Washington, D.C., teaches business practice and Typewriting I. Her hobbies include rug hooking, hi-fi, creative writing, collecting Hummels and also old arithmetic books. She also admits her pet peeve is strike-overs.

"There is almost no limit to what you can do if you really want to do it," say English department chairman MR. FREDERICK G. ALLEN, a graduate of Boston University (A.B.) and Yale University (M.A.). He enjoys reading, gardening, bird and people watching, but dislikes filling out idiotic questionnaires.

"There is almost no limit to what you can do

MR. FRANCIS P. ALLEVA, co-adviser of the Student Council, teaches both Bookkeeping I and clerical bookkeeping. A graduate of Northeastern University (B.S.) and Harvard University (Ed.M.), Mr. Alleva's pet peeve is students with ability who are mentally lazy.

MR. ALPHONSE J. ALMINAS, who teaches civics and American History, urges Commerce students to face life with a light heart and a heavy head. A graduate of Boston University (B.S.)M.Ed.) and Suffolk University (L.L.B.), he enjoys sports, reading, travel, and his family.

Fulbright exchange teacher DR. MARIA BARESE AMICO is a graduate of the University of Naples (Italy) where she received her Doctorate in Letters. Dr. Amico also attended the Universities of Oxford and Cambridge and is presently teaching English. A painting, photography, and music enthusiast, she particularly dislikes "a boresome endless lecture."

People who pretend to be what they are not is MR. GERARD W. AYOTTE's pet peeve. A typing teacher, he is a graduate of American International College (B.S.) and Springfield College (M.Ed.). He advises students to give more of themselves to their school and studies, for their school gives its all for them.

"YABADABADOO!" is MR. FRANK BALLAS's favorite expression. A teacher of general science, mathematics, and biology, he is a graduate of American International College (B.A., M.A.). Mr. Ballas's message to Commerce students is, "Work hard now so that life will be easier in the future."

MR. JOSEPH ROBERT BERNARD, a graduate of St. Michael's College (B.A.) and American International College (M.A.), teaches geometry and algebra. Br. Bernard, who dislikes boys with long hair, reminds Commerce students, "What you will be, you are now becoming."

MISS ELINOR Y. BURLOW, a French teacher and adviser to the Class of 1965, is a graduate of American International College (B.A.) and Springfield College (M.Ed.).

A graduate of The College of Our Lady of the Elms (B.A.), MISS PATRICIA CABANA teaches a general auxiliary class.

if you really want to do it."

(Allen)

MISS MADELEINE J. CANARIE, a tennis and golf enthusiast, urges students to follow every rainbow until they find their dream. A business practice and typing teacher, Miss Canarie is a graduate of Regis College (B.S.) and is attending Boston University.

MRS. CLAIRE O. CARROLL, who teaches stenography and typing, attended Salem Teachers College (B.S. ED.), Boston University (M.C.S.), and Indiana University. She is in charge of school locker keys.

A teacher of clothing, dressmaking, and personality and etiquette, MISS HELENE E. CARROLL attended Framingham State Teachers College (B.S. in ED.) and Springfield College (M. in Ed.). "Great Guns!" is Miss Carroll's favorite expression, and her hobbies include bridge, sewing, boating, and swimming.

MISS VIRGINIA M. CLANCY, a teacher of home economics and personality and etiquette, attended Framingham Teachers College (B.S.), Boston University, and Cornell University. She says that her pet peeve is bad manners, and music is her favorite hobby.

MR. ERNEST L. CONCHIERI says, "If students work hard here at Commerce, preparing themselves well for business and life, they will find themselves receiving many benefits and pleasures in their future years." Teacher of G. O. Accounting and Bookkeeping II, Mr. Conchieri is a graduate of American International College (B.S.) and New York University (M.A.). His pet peeves are chronic absentees and Alibi Ikes.

"Does G.O. really handle that much money, Ernest?"

MISS ELIZABETH CONNELL, who teaches English, is editorial adviser of Commerce. A graduate of Tufts College (A.B.) and Boston University (M.A.), she urges Commerce students to continue to uphold the tradition of Commerce as they have been doing.

"Develop a drive and use your abilities," says MISS GRACE M. CONNELL, a graduate of Boston University (B.S. E. and M.Ed.). She teaches social studies and enjoys bowling, reading, and traveling in her leisure time.

"Develop a drive

He also advises the school library and is boys' bowling coach. His hobbies are golf, bowling, and gem stone cutting. Mr. Ellison's pet peeve is a student's giving less than his best.

"Don't try to grow up too fast," says MR. WILLIAM M. FINNEGAN to Commerce students. A teacher of civics, economics, and United States History. Mr. Finnegan attended Bridgewater State Teachers College (B.S. Ed.) and the University of Massachusetts (M.S.)

and use your abilities."

(G. Connell)

MR. JOHN P. GAFFNEY, JR.'s message to Commerce students is, "Experience has proven that the educational opportunities offered at the High School of Commerce enable students to attain success in their chosen vocations." A graduate of American International College (B.A. and M.A.) who also studied at Columbia University, Yale University, University of Colorado, and San Francisco State College, Mr. Gaffney teaches English and is a Drama Club adviser.

MR. MELVIN H. GRANT, who teaches English, is a graduate of University of Massachusetts (A.B.) and American International College (M.A.). Mr. Grant is the director of Capers and adviser of the Drama Club. His pet peeve is apathetic students, and his favorite expression is "That's the story of your life."

MISS FLORENCE E. GREENLEAF, a teacher of physical education and behind-the-wheel driving, and a graduate of Bliss Business College, University of Maine (B.S.), and Springfield College, enjoys skiing, bowling, photography, and summer camping in her spare time. She is also coach of the cheerleaders.

English teacher MRS. HELENE GRIFIN, a graduate of Fitchburg State College (B.S. Ed.) and Springfield College (M. Ed.), is co-adviser of the National Honor Society.

"You should be ready" is the favorite expression of typing instructor MR. JAMES J. HARRINGTON. A graduate of American International College (B.S.) and Springfield College (M.E.), Mr. Harrington reminds Commerce students that politeness and consideration always pay well.

"Don't you wish Christmas came more than once a year, John?"

Hammock swinging is the hobby of history instructor MISS REGINA T. HENDERSON, a graduate of Westfield State College (B.S. Ed.) and Springfield College. When asked what message she would like to give Commerce students, Miss Henderson replied, "Nothing! I'm a living message now!"

MR. WAYLAND HOLLEY, a graduate of Dartmouth College (A.B.) and Northwestern University (M.A.), teaches English. He is soccer coach and senior class adviser. Mr. Holley's hobbies are sports, camping, and his children. Changing diapers is his pet peeve.

"Be neat. Be agreeable. Be yourself."

(Landry)

MISS ELEANOR B. HYDE, who urges Commerce students, "Do a little more than is expected of you," is a graduate of Framingham State Teachers College (B.S.) and also attended Boston University, Springfield College, and Furman University. Her pet peeve is answering questionnaires!

MR. HAROLD W. JONES, the "man with the camera," who teaches machine calculation, is a graduate of Springfield College (B.S., M.Ed.). His hobbies include photography, golf, and skiing. Mr. Jones' pet peeve is people who do not respect authority. His favorite expression is "Oh! my achin' ———!"

Commerce business adviser, MR. NORMAND LAFLAMME is a graduate of Holyoke Junior College (A.A.) and the University of Massachusetts (B.A., M.Ed.). Mr. Laflamme, who teaches algebra, geometry, and trigonometry, dislikes students' wasting time and advises Commerce students to enjoy their work.

MR. FRANK J. LANDRY, who enjoys beach combing, theater going, and astronomy, is a graduate of Plymouth State Teachers College (B.Ed.) and Boston University (M.A.). His message to Commerce students is "Be neat. Be agreeable. Be kind. Be yourself!"

MR. BERNARD M. LAVELLE, a graduate of St. Anselm's College (A.B.) and Westfield State College (M.Ed.), teaches English. An avid reader and classical record collector, he urges Commerce students not to grow up too quickly but to enjoy life in all of its stages.

"It's worth all the hard work when you see their writing improve."

Chairman of the social studies department, MR. RAYMOND C. LEMIEUX, received his academic preparation at Bridgewater State Teachers College (B.S. in Ed.; M.Ed.) and the University of Virginia. He enjoys golf, bowling, swimming, reading, and his two children.

"Lazy minds hinder learning," says MISS CATHERINE A. LEONE, teacher of the girls' auxiliary. She contends that getting up at five in the morning is her pet peeve, while her favorite expression in class is, "Look up the meaning of the word in the dictionary."

"The name of the game is work."

(McKay)

"The name of the game is work," is MR. JOHN J. MACKAY's favorite expression. A teacher of economics and American history, he is a graduate of American International College (B.S., M.A.). Mr. Mackay enjoys golf and fishing and says his pet peeve is people who are unreliable.

MRS. FRANCES MAHAN, a graduate of American International College (B.S., M.A.), teaches shorthand.

Music and reading are MRS. MARGARET M. MANNIX's hobbies. Mrs. Mannix, a graduate of Westfield State College (B.S.), teaches English at Commerce. She urges Commerce students, "Time is valuable; don't waste it!"

MISS RUTH G. MARSDEN, who teaches commercial art, interior decoration and costume design, takes part in many activities, such as Capers. Her pet peeve is people who can't find things, and her favorite expression is "Oh Brother!" Miss Marsden urges Commerce students to "Be on the beam."

MISS MARY E. MCCARTHY, who teaches Spanish, is adviser of the Junior Red Cross and supervisor of Capers ushers. A graduate of the College of Our Lady of the Elms (A.B.) and Springfield College (M.Ed.), she urges Commerce students: "Make the most of your three years at Commerce."

"The corridors seem livelier than usual this afternoon."

MISS ALBERTA McCLEARY, a graduate of Mount Holyoke College (B.S.) and the University of Pennsylvania, teaches biology and is the adviser of the Caduceus photography staff. She includes photography and gardening among her hobbies.

MISS JOAN McDONALD, a graduate of American International College (B.S.) and New York University (M.S.), teaches bookkeeping and typing. She lists skating and bowling among her favorite recreational activities.

"Be sure mind is in gear

MR. BARON V. McDUFFEE, who teaches physics, reminds Commerce students that nature is beautifully organized. He asserts that man would never have had the ability to organize nature, but he has found the ability to disorganize it. A gardening and woodworking enthusiast, Mr. McDuffee is a graduate of Fitchburg Teachers College (B.S.Ed. and M.Ed.) and the University of Connecticut.

MR. WILLIAM McWha, a graduate of Salem State Teachers College (B.S.) and Boston University (M.Ed.), teaches clerical bookkeeping and business practice. The ever-active Mr. McWha, who quite naturally dislikes lazy students, quips, "Work eight hours a day and sleep eight, but don't sleep the same eight you work."

Football, wrestling, and baseball coach MR. GEORGE WILLIAM MEACHAM teaches business math and general business practice. "Follow directions" is the favorite expression of stamp-collector Meacham.

"Be thoughtful and considerate of others," advises MISS CATHERINE T. MEEHAN, who teaches office practice and typing. A graduate of the Teachers College of Connecticut (B.S.) and Columbia University (M.A.), her pet peeve is people who do not fulfill their responsibilities.

English and speech teacher MR. HERBERT MICHAELS is a graduate of Boston University (B.S.) and University of Illinois (M.A.). A yachting, polo, and mountain-climbing enthusiast (!?), his pet peeve is people who try to impress others with their hobbies!

"Why, thank you, Sammy Claus."

MRS. CATHERINE MORIARTY, a graduate of Boston University (B.B.A.) and Northeastern University (M.Ed.), teaches stenography.

A teacher of typewriting, MISS HONORA F. NELLIGAN attended Smith College (A.B.) and Northampton Commercial College. Her message to Commerce students is: "Three years pass quickly—make the most of them."

before putting mouth in motion."

(anonymous)

"Do-it-yourselfer" MR. WALTER D. NICKERSON, a graduate of New England Conservatory of Music (B.-Mus.) and Springfield College (M.-Ed.), teaches vocal and instrumental music. Crow's nest "hair-do's" are the pet peeve of Mr. Nickerson, who quotes: "Be sure mind is in gear before putting mouth in motion."

Physical education instructor MRS. VERONICA C. O'DELL urges Commerce students to "wear a smile even if it hurts." A graduate of Springfield College (B.S.), she is in charge of after-school girls' athletic activities and lists, "Do we have to take a shower?" as her pet peeve.

MISS HELEN E. RANKIN, who is the school's College English teacher, received her B.A. from Irving College and also attended Pennsylvania State. Besides her many hobbies of teaching, reading, walking and talking, Miss Rankin is the adviser of the National Honor Society. Her favorite expression is, of course, "Think."

MR. RICHARD SANDBERG, a graduate of Clark University, (A.B., A.M.), teaches world history and U.S. History. Mr. Sandberg is adviser for the junior class, Hi-Y and Social Committee. His hobby is touring Civil War battlefields. Mr. Sandberg's pet peeve is slovenly dress and manners.

MRS. GLADYS A. SARTWELL, a graduate of John B. Stetson University (A.B., M.A.) and the University of Virginia, teaches English. She reminds Commerce students that every mind needs to frolic occasionally so that it can better return to thinking.

"Yes, I know, Mr. E. I was adviser for seventeen years."

MR. ANTHONY J. SERAFINO, JR., a graduate of Boston University (B.S., M.A.) who also attended Dartmouth College, Harvard Graduate School of Business, and Springfield College, teaches law, sales, and bookkeeping. Mr. Serafino's hobbies are golf, bowling, and mowing the lawn. His pet peeve is 3-putt greens.

Be polite and take time to be considerate of others, advises MRS. MILDRED D. SHUTE, a graduate of Georgia State College (B.S.) and Columbia University (M.A.). Miss Shute teaches Commerce students dressmaking, clothing, and personality and etiquette.

"Tis education forms the common mind;

MR. HAROLD D. SMITH, JR., a teacher of social studies and driver education, says that his favorite expression is "How about that." A graduate of Becker Junior College (AS. in Sci.) and Clark University (B.B.A. and M.A. Ed.), Mr. Smith enjoys basketball officiating and bowling in his leisure time.

A graduate of Northwestern University (B.S.) and American International College (M.A.), MR. JOHN A. STONE teaches biology. He urges Commerce students to "Be diligent, for it's later than you think!"

MR. JOHN G. TENCZAR, who teaches business math, is a graduate of University of Massachusetts (B.B.A. and M.B.A.). His hobbies include music, skiing, and boating. "Your homework for tonight is ——" is Mr. Tenczar's favorite expression.

MR. HENRY TRESPAS, who teaches biology, chemistry, and physiology, is a graduate of Massachusetts College of Pharmacy and Science (B.S. and M.S.). Among his many pleasures are fishing, golfing, bowling, reading, and collecting coins.

MR. JOHN J. TROY, JR., a graduate of the University of Notre Dame (B.S.) and Boston University (M.Ed.), teaches physical education and driver education. He is a fishing enthusiast. Mr. Troy, our dynamic football and basketball coach, quite naturally lists "officials" as his pet peeve.

"Hmm, third down and still nine to go."

"Hi!" exclaims MRS. FREDERICA W. VAUGHAN, a teacher of physical education and adviser to the G.A.A. Board and the Drill Team. A graduate of Bouve School of Physical Education, Mrs. Vaughan enjoys bridge and reading in her leisure time.

MR. HENRY A. WIATROWSKI, a teacher of American History and world history, says that his pet peeve is lackadaisical students. A graduate of American International College (B.A.), and Columbia University (M.A.), Mr. Wiatrowski enjoys reading, golf, foreign films, and candlepin bowling in his spare time.

Just as the twig is bent the tree's inclined."

(Pope)

MR. WILLIAM WALLACE WILDER, a graduate of the University of New Hampshire (B.S., M.Ed.) and Harvard University, teaches physics, chemistry, and physiology. "Anything worth doing is worth doing well," is the favorite expression of the dust-conscious Mr. Wilder, who checks window sills to see if they're dusted.

MRS. EMMA J. WILLIAMS, a graduate of Hampton Institute (B.S.) and Springfield College (M.S.), teaches physical education. She enjoys doing crossword puzzles and instructing students in intramural activities.

MR. WILLARD J. WRIGHT, who was educated at American International College (B.A.) and Springfield College (M.A.), is a teacher of world history and geography. Mr. Wright is our basketball coach and junior class adviser.

MISS JULIA T. ZAJCHOWSKI, a graduate of Westfield State College (B.S. Ed.) and Boston University (M.Ed.), teaches filing and is head of the commercial department. People who can't read their own writing are the pet peeve of Miss Zajchowski, who advises Commerce students to "Do a little more than what is required of you."

"Pay attention, Listen to your elders, and think!" advises MR. KENNETH A. ZEMLA, a boating and golfing enthusiast. A graduate of Northeastern University (B.B.A.) and College of Our Lady of the Elms (M.E.), he teaches business math. His pet peeve is a bad round of golf.

"Yes, I suppose American students are different, Dr. Amico."

MRS. CATHERINE HART has just completed her first year as Freshman Counselor. She has attended Boston University, where she received her A.B., and Springfield College, where she received her M.E. Because her hobby is organ study, it is not surprising that one of her school activities is the Music Festival. "A task well begun is a task half done" is Mrs. Hart's message to all Commerce students.

Our Junior Counselor, MRS. CECILIA CABANA graduated from New York University, receiving her B.S.Ed. She earned her M.S.Ed. in Personnel and Guidance at Springfield College. Capers, G.O. Dance, Junior Class Advisership keep Mrs. Cabana busy. Her message is "Learn to THINK."

Guidance Counselors

MR. BRUNO RUMPAL, Senior Counselor and Placement Director, attended Springfield College and London School of Economics of the University of London for his B.A. and Clark University for his M.A. He went to Columbia University and Springfield College for extra study. He has coached many sports, besides being Adviser to Patrols and Student Council and, in his own words, "every conceivable odd and end at H.S.C." The message he wishes to extend is, "Don't come back three years later full of wisdom and tell us, 'Why don't you tell them?', as you know we do that daily."

Guidance Counselors, Office and Building Personnel

Combine their specialized talents contributing to the smooth operation of Commerce High.

Office Staff

Mrs. Williams, our acting school nurse, ministers to many Commerce students throughout her busy day.

Barbara Ellis

Mary Rearden

Mildred Powers

Helen Benoit

The Lunchroom Staff efficiently prepares and serves over a thousand meals each day. Seated are Christine Courtney, Maria Grimaldi, Gracy Dady, Mary Connolly. Standing are Muriel Dexter, Jeannette Lemelin, Mary Russo, Martha Seaver.

GRADUATION

English

the study of our own language, teaches us about our literary heritage and the art of proper communication.

Carefully examining Miss Rankin's bulletin board are college prep English students Madeline Mias, Patricia Williams, Beverly Ruggeri, Jay Jeffes, and Peggy Foster.

During Patricia Woods' oral report in one of Mrs. Griffin's freshman English classes, Sandra Green, Barbara Wilson, Maria DiMarchi, Patricia McAlleer, and Linda Farina listen attentively. They know that their turn will come soon.

As Joan Newman demonstrates the use of accent marks in Miss McCarthy's room, Darryl Poole, Judith Ouimet, and Thomas Farrell look on.

French and Spanish

two major academic subjects at Commerce, have grown in popularity in recent years.

Science

helps the student to prepare for the challenge of the future. In this new age of rockets and wonderful medical discoveries, men and women who have a knowledge of chemistry, physics, and biology are needed everywhere.

All good physics students, like Brenda Potter, at Commerce soon learn the coefficient of linear expansion.

Indulging in the study of physics can be a hair-raising experience as shown by Tana Benoit, Karen Jones, Barbara Kuc, and Barbara Benoit, who are "shocked" by the effects of the electrostatic generator.

"Gee, do I really look like this?" exclaims Carol Milanese as she examines a model owned by the biology department.

"Do you think that Edison started like this?" Mona Merigian and Elsa Cressotti are involved in an experiment concerning the properties and preparation of hydrogen.

Better than DDT? The Venus Fly Trap is a plant that actually devours flies. It is sensitive to the touch of any foreign object.

Social Studies

at Commerce try to acquaint the student with the world, its problems, and its peoples—both past and present.

One of the many services of the social studies department is a explanation of how the stock market operates. Terry Klewin and Maureen Finn, however, just don't seem to understand the averages, as their looks tell us.

Marilyn Kopyscinski explains to Sandra Capuano, Alvin Miller, and Josephine Garwacki the many benefits received from Social Security and how the funds are obtained.

The freshman geography class keeps up with the affairs of the world by having each student give a current event report periodically. Jo Ann Blair gives her report to the class. Shown here: Christine Weld, Linda Meyers, Laura Stachelek, Theresa Cote, Joseph Dimauro, Patrick Delano, and Jane Moore listening attentively to the talk.

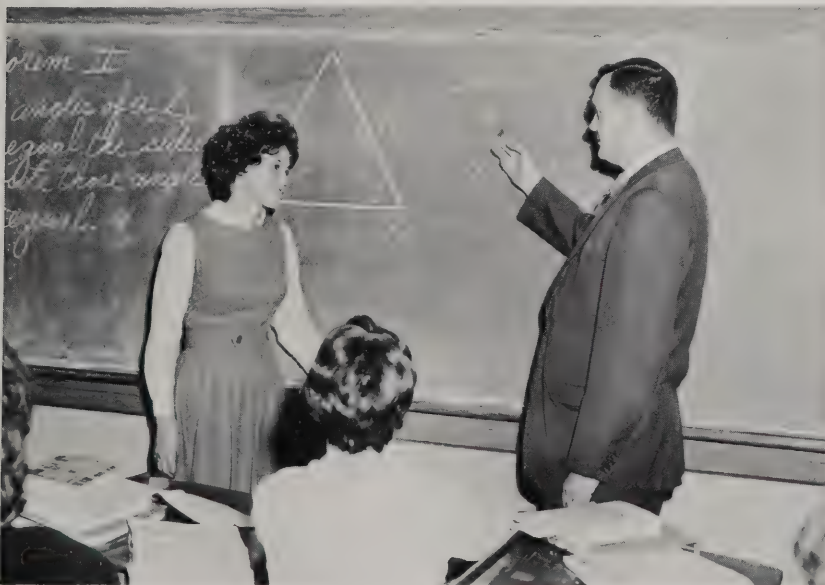

Robert Allis explains to Daniel Mangan the function of the first term in this literal equation in second year algebra shown here on the board.

Mathematics

at Commerce is being revolutionized in an attempt to eliminate rote and to introduce a more mature concept of mathematics as a language.

Mr. Bernard explains geometric Theorem Two to Donna Yvon while the remainder of the class listens attentively.

Stenography

Here, Kathy St. Marie inserts the proper punctuation in her shorthand notes. Stenography II is a double-period course: following the taking of dictation, the notes will be transcribed.

Remaining calm is a habit practiced by all good typists. Donna Harper displays this during a timed writing in a Typing I class.

Business Practice

course introduces general office accounting procedures. Simulating actual job situations, it trains students to think for themselves.

Bookkeeping

gives future accountants the technical competence they will need for the business world of dollars and cents.

Nancy Merchant ponders over her next journal entry in her Bookkeeping class. Her concentration will help her to achieve neatness and accuracy.

Sandra Vernadakis and William French are practicing the operation of the recently installed Teletypewriter in Room 311. Operated like a typewriter, this machine prepares a tape which will transmit messages at tremendous speed to distant cities.

Jeanne Bellew demonstrates correct posture and technique in Penmanship, a subject which still has great importance in the business world.

Calculators have long since replaced the popular method of finger counting. Here, however, Janis Fitzgerald tries a combination of both. Perhaps it pays to be doubly sure!

Office Practice

courses inculcate versatility. Training in communicating and calculating machines, filing, penmanship, sales techniques prepares our graduates for immediate usefulness in the modern business office.

Judy Teel explains to JoAnn Riskin the use of the Mimeoscope, which will help her to prepare a stencil in Duplicating.

The orchestra, one of the newer musical groups at Commerce, which performs at the Christmas Assembly and Spring Concert, includes, Front Row: Frances Duzniewski, Sharyn Motyka, Paula Den-

Music, Home Economics and Art

Sleighbells and Moonlight

The Christmas Dance of 1962 was the mid-year highlight of the senior year. This semi-formal event took place in the gym, which was decorated in a festive holiday fashion. The 140 couples who attended all felt the Christmas spirit.

Our faculty advisers, Mr. Finnegan, Miss Clancy, and Mr. Holley had just as jolly a time as the students while helping to make the dance a success.

The Christmas Dance Committee were: Judy Collings, Sue Jordan, John Herlihy, Mary Beth Elliot, Barbara Fortune, Debby Vosburgh, Sue DeBarge, Barbara Taylor, and Karen Newman.

Some of the girls on the Refreshment Committee were: Marilou Riendeau, Janis Rovelli, Carleen Damboise, and Annette Chiprich.

The Class Will

Be it remembered that we the class of 1963, city of Springfield, County of Hampden, in the Commonwealth of Massachusetts, being of sound mind and memory, do make this our last will and testament.

After the payment of our just debts and charges owed to the faculty, we bequeath and devise as follows:

Homeroom 318-a leaves to Mr. Nickerson all the rat-nest hairdo's that will arise in future years.

To Mr. Finnegan, the senior class leaves a new batch of plain ole students to be converted into "full-fledged scholars."

All of Mr. Jones's little helpers leave a whole bunch of sneakers (all left foot) to the next helpers so they can keep up with him.

Those, the lucky ones, who have been in Mr. Holley's class leave him, graciously, a brand new joke book.

The polite and thoughtful seniors in the lunchroom leave the tables to all unseated freshmen and juniors.

Fran O'Leary leaves his "good ole" ruler to Danny Eaton to beat on all the radiators that aren't already bashed in.

Marie Calvanese leaves all her old pins and strikes to Mr. Ya-Ba-Da-Ba-Do Ballas.

The cloud No. 9 is left to anyone who thinks he can handle it.

The 6th period class of Mr. Conchieri leaves him a new flashy necktie.

Sandy Shonak leaves to Miss Rankin some fertilizer to help her pencil grow faster than her dead plant.

Dennis Bruno, Peter Brittain, and Edward Mari leave Mr. Wilder a laugh meter.

To upcoming juniors, we leave the chemistry lab with all the smells that go along with it.

Our class would not forget, of course, to leave a golden crown for King Meacham.

Miss Sally Talbot leaves to the library and Mr. Ellison a book of her famous hair styles.

To Miss McCleary we leave a few stand-in homeroom pupils to keep her company while the real McCoys are elsewhere.

John J. Sullivan leaves to the halls of Commerce the echo of his boasting and the sighs his clothes from A. O. White brought.

The Caduceus staff leaves Mr. Ellison some crazy layouts for him to diplomatically reject.

The G. O. Accounting Class leaves Mr. Conchieri the 50 cents they are always off.

Our renowned basketball team leaves to Coach Troy a legitimate offer to head the coaching of the Harlem Globe Trotters.

To Mr. Sweeney, we leave a genuine presidential rocking chair to rock around the clock in.

To Miss Marsden, Richard Segrin and Paul Lopardo leave dirty paint brushes and broken crayons.

To the National Honor Society, we leave some instant cookies for any future cookie sales.

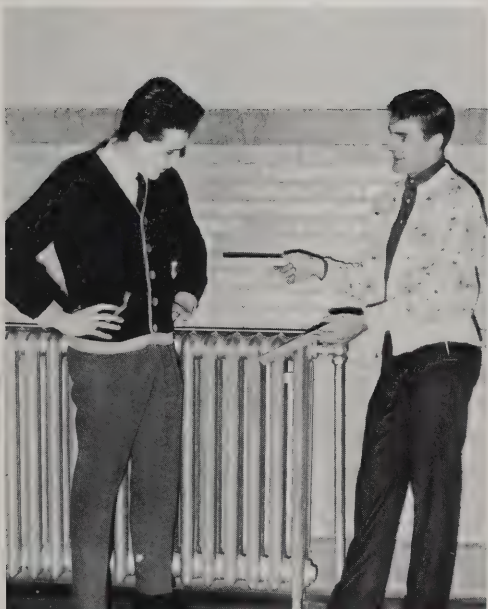

The seniors of the Drill Team leave Mrs. Vaughan a red and white thinking cap to use when she is developing some fancy new drills.

The senior cheerleaders relinquish their hoarse throats to the next leaders, who we hope will be just as loud, in order for Classical to hear them.

The ambitious class of "63" leaves the theme of their Junior Prom to any other class that would like to use it.

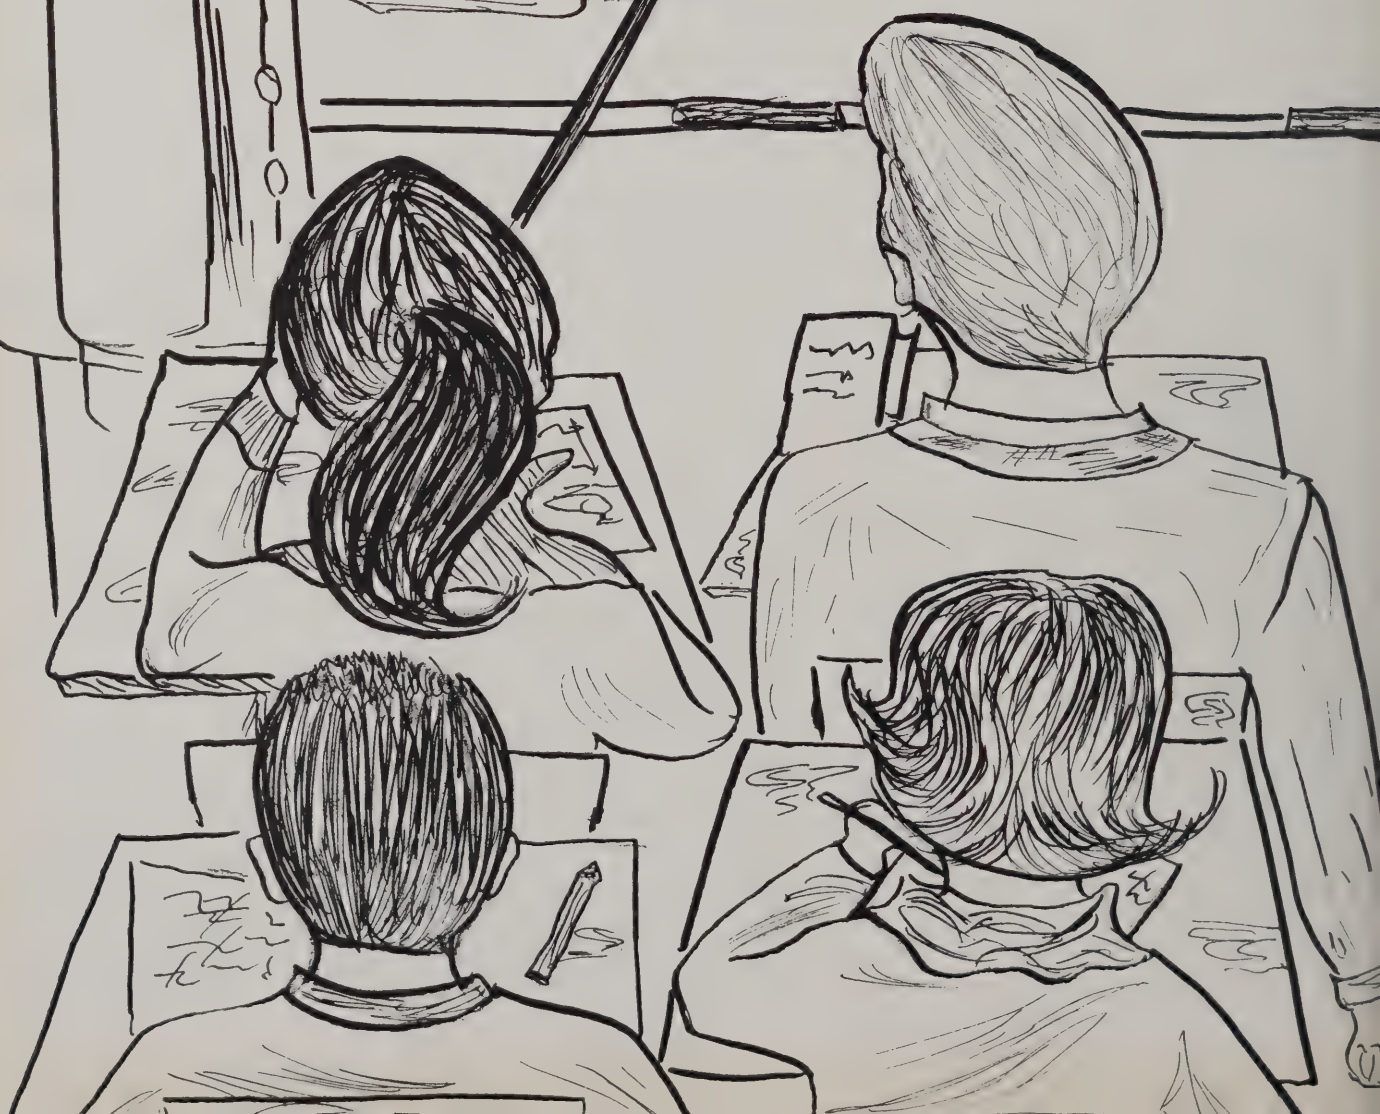

Last of all we leave three years of our lives, which we shall never regain, and say, "We could not have spent them in a better way."

1 lessons

The Freshman Year

FRESHMAN CLASS ADVISERS AND OFFICERS.

STANDING: Miss Zajchowski, Mr. Meacham, and Miss Burlow. SEATED: Janice Kennedy, secretary; David Jebb, president; and Betty Demers, vice-president.

These expressions of uncertainty and anticipation are typical of a freshman's first day in high school. Hesitant about entering their new homeroom are Carol Kinney, Andre LaChance, Joseph Koslik, Josephine Kuza, and Doris King.

To Freshman

Your teachers gather around you
With threats and menacing looks.
The juniors aren't so quiet;
They simply throw their books.
The seniors always tell you
You're acting like a fool,
But you can't be completely wrong;
You picked the right school.

RIGHT: Linda Nickett and Philomena Pirro seen to be enjoying their task of Freshie Day Torment immensely by practicing different hair styles on Jackie Berrouard and Tony Daponde.

Mr. Sweeney congratulates the freshmen who still manage to receive First Honors in spite of the mid-term examinations. These steady students are Brenda Potter, Margaret Marullo, Charlotte Valoroze, Ronald Connor, and Barbara Kuc.

What is adored by the Seniors, ignored by the Juniors, and abhorred by the Freshmen? The answer can be none other than

FRESHIE

Hollywood has its Elvis Presley;
Commerce has its Raymond Korny.

DAY

On this day, Frosh had to succumb to the clever and vengeful antics of upper classmen. Thus, they were duly initiated.

"Who says girls are the weaker sex?" asks Ellen Palmer. Donald Vachon still insists he has Iron Deficiency Anemia.

When are the try-outs?

You would think that some of these freshmen would have better taste than Edward Gordon's.

Assemblies

bring the school together for many different purposes. Sports rallies, awards, special entertainment, and just plain fun are prominent.

"Beat Cathedral" is the cry from Barbara Raschi, Nancy Allen, Judith Collings, and Ellen Palmer as they cheer on with the student body at an exciting rally.

Kenner Jordan demonstrates a few tricks to the team while Norman Ross catches up on his studies.

Seniors show their "vim and vigor" when it comes to supporting the team.

Mr. Sweeney looks on as the honor rolls are read by Junior Class President Danny Eaton, Senior Class President John Herlihy, and Freshman Class President David Jebb.

BELOW: The combined voices of the Choir and Chorus made our Christmas Assembly a pleasant prelude to the Christmas Holidays. Participating were: CHOIR: Roberta Combs, Elizabeth Disselkamp, Gladys Flower, Carmelina Guardione, Lois Guidi, Joanne LeBlanc, Linda Nickett, Carol Rood, Ruthann Rosen, Montenia Shider, Beverly Smith, Heather Swenor, and Betty Woodlief. CHORUS: Pamela Abraham, Elsie Baines, Diane Blette, Marianne Calabrese, Sharyn Callahan, Anna Champagne, Mary Corriveau, Carleen Damboise, Sheila Dixon, Mauren Engelson, Clotilde Gaston, Yvonne Houston, Janis Landry, Linda Lopardo, Beverly Marcelli, Linda Meyers, Carol Milanese, Lynne O'Brien, Judith Pafumi, Donna Parks, Judy Perkins, Linda Serra, Patricia Sevilla, Adrene Simmons, Corrina Spinks, Florence Morsky, Sandra Pasterczyk, Clarence Bayman, Samuel Blackwell, Kenneth Brandt, Anthony Dapondé, Nicholas DePalo, Walter Greer, Barry Cantor, Frederick Edwards, Raymond Korny, Joseph Koslik, Paul Lopardo, James Marsh, David Nawoj, Robert Ollari, John Parker, Rudolph Salvas, Neal Somerville, Paul Stallone, Antonio Palazzesi.

At an assembly calling the students' attention to the importance of G. O. membership, Donna Sanderson takes the part of an HSC alumna who also belonged to G. O. in her day. Senior class president, John Herlihy, "hams it up."

"I'll bring it in Monday," was one of the many excuses heard by the G. O. Accounting class this year. Here Druscilla Usher portrays a delinquent student getting that "friendly little talk" by Mr. Conchieri and G. O. Auditor Earlene White.

G. O. Accounting

The General Organization subsidizes many of our yearly school functions. If it weren't for the co-operation of all the students and the diligent work of the G. O. Accounting class in 113, many of the extra-curricular activities would be impossible to finance adequately.

These flashy chorus girls are: Susan Cooley, Karen Gran, Lynne Graham, Jackie Paine, Carol Lewis, Sherry Paquette, Jean Blanchard, and Marcia Clark.

CAPERS '62

The High Street Hillbillies, Judy Labonte, Pat Joseph, Phyllis Pirro, Susan Ward and Linda Nickett, "Doin' What Comes Naturally," were a rip-roarin' hit in the show.

Pondering new ideas for scenes, John Herlihy, Barry Cantor, and Samuel Merejian compare notes.

The Capers show was, as it is every year, a great joy to the audience as well as the cast. The theme used in this production was a T.V. broadcast. This broad subject made it possible for a variety of many different acts, sible for a variety of acts, making the show one that could please everyone.

Carleen Damboise, the little frightened girl, recited "The Horse."

Montenia Shider, at her best, sang "Where Are You?"

John O'Leary, assisted by Alice Senecal, tickled the keys for the majority of the show.

Creative dramatics is one of the activities of the Drama Club where the members broaden their parts with their imagination. Portraying the nursery rhyme "Little Bo Peep" are Candace Gould, Linda Chisholm, Diane Stempek, and Linda Martin.

Another interest of the Drama Club is makeup. Shown practicing on each other are Deborah Armstrong, Ruthann Rosen, Sally Talbot, Carole Devens, and Patricia Freeman.

Mr. John Gaffney, co-adviser.

In connection with National Book Week in October, the English Department held a Book Fair in the library, with the student library assistants in charge of selling paperbacks. Nearly three hundred titles—serious and popular — were available for students to choose from. The photos at the bottom of this page do not lie: the Fair attracted crowds of interested freshmen, juniors, and seniors. As a result, we now have a permanent paperback sales cabinet, where students may browse every morning before school. All profits will be used for purchasing additional books for the library's permanent collection. ABOVE: Terry Perron, left, chief library assistant, is in charge of sales and bookkeeping. Shoppers are Betty Davis, Sue Wright, and Cathy Sullivan.

RAIDERS WIN 6; LOSE 11

It was another disappointing season for the baseball team. Largely composed of freshmen, the squad won 6 games and lost 11. The boys were in there fighting all the way. The valuable experience they gained playing should brighten Raider prospects in 1963.

Don Allen, top pitcher in Raider Staff, shows the form that helped him achieve a record of four wins and three losses. Two of his victories were no hitters against West Side and Amherst.

A familiar sight in the Raider dugout is Coach Wright keeping score.

Tom O'Connor, an excellent first baseman, holds a Classical player at first. The Raiders won the game 11-2.

Raider Football Varsity

salvaged only a 14-14 tie against Lee. With just two seniors on the squad, it was a campaign of rebuilding, of gaining experience through hard knocks.

Booters Post 2 Wins

With a record of 2 wins, 9 losses, and 2 ties, it wouldn't take an expert to tell that the 1962 soccer season wasn't totally successful. On the other hand, playing the game helped the boys learn teamwork and good coordination.

Henry Payne, the top scorer on the Raider team, adds two to the Commerce total with one of his skillfully executed jump-shots.

Norm Ross easily out-jumps a St. Joseph player this time and ups the Raider score by two with a lay-up.

Hard-working forward Kenner Jordan goes up for one of his many rebounds that helped the Raiders attain their fine record. Walter Greer (44) and Freddie Hill stand by ready to give any assistance to Kenner that might be needed.

Varsity Basketball

finishes another successful season

Raiders 15-3

The '62-'63 Varsity Basketball Team. FRONT ROW: Carl Smith, Milton Jones, Alvin Miller, Earl Bryant, Henry Payne, Eli Green. SECOND ROW: Thomas Natale, manager, Kenner Jordan, Steve

Grapplers

Win 1, Lose 7

During a practice session, Coach Meacham points out to the boys their weakness and gives them suggestions on how to improve their wrestling.

Charles Anderson grimaces in pain while trying to escape from a hold of a Classical adversary.

Roger Bouchard delivers the fast, cross-alley ball that picked up numerous spares and strikes. Bouchard's 108.9 average was second highest in the interschool league. A good "pressure man," he was especially valuable in close matches.

Candlepin Bowling

competition demands more skill each year. Higher pinfall and more thrilling matches characterize 1963 varsity season.

Acknowledgments

Our thanks to:

Mr. Raymond Ellison, our adviser, for his patient guidance in the production of this book.

Miss Alberta McCleary and her student assistants, Donna Sanderson and Marian Nickelson, for their indispensable efforts in scheduling and arranging our pictures.

Mr. Harold Jones, our A-OK photographer, for his co-operation in catering to our every beck and call for group and action photos.

Miss Regina Henderson and her senior assistants, Alex Szmyt and Joanne Gamble, for their arranging appointments for senior portraits.

Mr. Jack Brown of T. O'Toole and Sons, Inc., for his invaluable technical advice throughout the entire book.

Mr. Ed Carlson of the Loring Studios for his rescuing us in several emergency photo situations.

Mr. Alphonse Alminas and his Business Staff for their efforts in financing and distribution of this year's yearbook.

Sandy Vernadakis, Mary Beth Elliott, Terry Lyons, and Steve Raichelson for their assistance in the production of our candid.

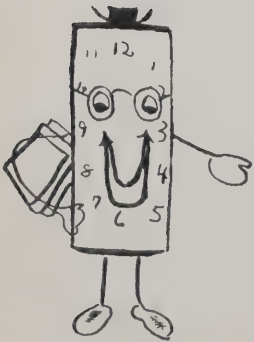

Lorraine Senecal for her artistic talents displayed in the Senior Ballot.

Miss Elizabeth Connell for the use of her typewriters in Room 217.

The administration and faculty for their assistance, co-operation, and patience at our frequent interruptions.

A TELEPHONE JOB

OFFERS BOTH CAREER

---

AND SOCIAL SATISFACTION

WITHOUT BREAKING STRIDE,

why not graduate from high school to the Telephone Company? You'll love the friendly young people who'll work with you, and the many social activities that make your work so pleasant and rewarding.

OPPORTUNITY IS EXCELLENT

and your ability will be recognized. Your starting salary should climb with regular increases. And, of course, Company benefits, security, and regular advancement are well-known reasons why working for the Telephone Company is so attractive to graduates.

TELEPHONE JOBS ARE IMPORTANT,

vital to the effective communications of the community, the nation, and the world. When you take your place as a respected member of the telephone community, we'll train you, on full salary, even without previous job experience.

Why not come and see our employment interviewer soon . . . before you graduate? Ask your Guidance Counselor to tell you when and where to apply.
